4 The room in which the establishments of the Councillors are accommodated, being enclosed on all sides by a wooden partition, is cut off from external breeze and is therefore always uncomfortable. In summer, however, the atmosphere of the room becomes so oppressive that it is impossible to sit and work in it for one hour at a stretch.

5 To give relief to the poor officials working there, it is respectfully submitted that orders may be issued for adding two wall plugs to the existing electric fittings, so as to enable fans being used whenever necessary.

6 To bring the desired relief during the current season, early orders are solicited.
